North Carolina Christian School Association

What Does NCCSA Offer Your School?

- A Service-oriented Full-time State Office that offers Quality Advice and Help
- Counsel for New and Existing Schools
- Affiliation with other NCCSA Member Schools across our State
- National Office
- National Legislative Office
- Educational Office
- National Legal Office
- Full-service Legal Hotline
- Legislative Oversight—both in Raleigh and in Washington, D.C.
- Annual Legislative Conference in Washington D.C.
- NC Legislative Breakfast (Raleigh) semi-annually
- Liberty Defense Fund
- Bi-Monthly "Update" from NCCSA Office
- AACS Monthly Newsletter
- AACS Monthly Capitol Comments Letter
- Periodic Legal Briefs from AACS
- Teacher Certification Program (TCP)
- Voluntary Accreditation Program (VAP)
- Professional On-site Visits
- Bloodborne Pathogens Control and Training Plan
- Drug and Alcohol Testing (for CDL Drivers)
- Endorsed Product Services and Programs
- RightPath 403(b) Retirement Program
- Students Accident Insurance Available for Member Schools
- Full-service Insurance for Member Schools including Health, life, Cancer, Short-term and Long-term Disability, Vision, and Dental
- Standardized Testing Program for Member Schools
- National AACS Honor Society
- Annual Academic, Bible, & Fine Arts Festivals for Elementary, Junior High, and High School
- State Athletic Competition
- Books, Manuals, and other Printed Helps
- Annual Christian Educators' Convention
- Faculty Placement Service
- Regional Christian School Convention with several other states
- Annual National Educators' Conference
- Pastor and Administrator Conference

What are some reasons for investing time and money into the NCCSA?

BENEFITS FOR SCHOOL:

- Full-time State Office with Executive Director to serve you
- Legislative Oversight in Raleigh and Washington
- Legal counsel
- National Affiliation with National offices in Washington and in Chattanooga
- Voluntary Accreditation Program (VAP)
- Annual Competition in Bible, Academics, and Fine Arts
- State Athletic Competition
- Full-Service Insurance Programs
- Group Health Plans
- Bi-Monthly Newsletters
- Bi-Annual Legislative Breakfast
- NCCSA and AACS Directories
- Fellowship with other "member" schools
- Placement Letters
- Annual Christian Educators' Convention
- Annual Pastors and Administrators Conference
- SchoolCast and TestPoint
- High-Quality Products from Endorsed Product Suppliers

BENEFITS FOR TEACHERS:

- Teacher Certification Program (TCP)
- Faculty Placement Service
- Christian Educators' Journal
- Insurance Programs (health, life, vision, dental, cancer, long-term and short term disability)
- Retirement Program (403b)
- Fellowship with Christian educators from member schools

BENEFITS FOR STUDENTS:

- State Fine Arts Competition in Bible, Academics, and Fine Arts
- National Fine Arts Competition available to State Winners
- State Athletic Competition
- Christian College Fair
- Student Legislative Training
- Student Accident Insurance
- Fellowship with Students from other Christian Schools
- American Christian Honor Society
- Standardized Achievement Testing Program